

Celebrating youth achievements in the Sudbury area with the Rotary Young Citizen of the Year Award 2012

We're searching for young people - aged 25 or under on August 31 2011 - living in Sudbury and the surrounding towns and villages, who demonstrate the qualities of good citizenship.

They may be helping local charities or good causes, volunteering in their community, overcoming disability or disadvantage, caring for parents, siblings or grandparents.

Sudbury's Rotary Clubs, the Suffolk Free Press and Waitrose are looking for those young people who are making positive contributions to their communities. Let's kick into touch the myth of "feral youth" and show others just how good most of our young people really are.

We want to hear from parents, teachers, youth leaders, ministers, friends and relations - anyone who knows of young people who are a shining example to others.

Nominations for the Young Citizen of the Year 2012 close on 13 January 2012. Nomination forms are available from the Suffolk Free Press office in Borehamgate Precinct, Sudbury.

Also available by email from: valeriegoodchild@talktalk.net

Or complete the nomination form attached with this poster. Both individuals and teams of young people working together to achieve something for their local community can be nominated for the Awards.
