

Do you have any leadership responsibility in a Church or Christian organisation?

Then you are invited to a strategic inter-denominational event organised by
Spectrum Contemporary Christian Studies

The East Anglian Christian Leaders Forum

Re-Thinking Evangelism

Thursday March 24th 2011
West Road Church
68 Queens Rd, Bury St Edmunds
Suffolk, IP33 3EW
9.30am - 2.30pm

Krish Kandiah

Evangelical Alliance
Exec Director: Church in Mission

Plus other speakers including:

Rev David Gardner

CofE Bishops Advisor for Fresh Expressions

Mark & Louise Williams

Vineyard

Simon Ladd

Independent/Evangelical

Andrew Buttress

Spectrum

This 'Re-thinking Evangelism' Forum provides opportunity to:

- ▶ Stimulate strategic thinking
- ▶ Provide a panoramic view of evangelism in East Anglia and the UK today
- ▶ Give opportunity to personally contribute and learn from each other
- ▶ Help church leaders develop their own effective evangelistic programmes
- ▶ Ask relevant questions, such as:
 - What is different about evangelism today compared with a few years ago?
 - What forms of evangelism are working, what are not working, and why?
 - What is the bigger picture? and what are various trends telling us?

Delegates £10: Includes a light lunch if registration received by Tuesday 22nd March
Group offer - every 4th attendee receives free registration

Spectrum Contemporary Christian Studies

An inter-denominational organisation resourcing the church by providing learning opportunities relating Christian Faith to contemporary society. To register and pay in advance go to: www.spectrumchristianstudies.com or contact the Spectrum Office at: 'Bella Vista', Mill Rd, Gt Barton, Suffolk, IP31 2RU 01284 788284 / 07749 265571

