

St Gregory's Church Events Committee invites you to

A "Who-dunnit" Mystery Evening

set in Tudor times

on Saturday 5th March 2011, 7.30 pm

at Friars Hall, School Street, Sudbury

in aid of St Gregory's Church.

This occasion is suitable for all ages except very young children. It is open to all, so invite your family, friends and neighbours, or come on your own. We promise a social evening with a difference!

Initially, the actors introduce themselves and portray the events. The audience, in groups at tables, is then able to question each of the suspects in turn. During the interval food is served; afterwards further scenes are acted out, and there is another round of questioning. Then it is time for each table to decide who committed the crime, how, and why. The evening ends with a re-enactment of the crime, and a prize for the group with the best answers. It's great fun so come along and invite others to join in as sleuths for the night.

For more than ten years this format has provided enjoyable evenings at a range of venues in south Essex, and we are delighted to bring this award-winning amateur drama group to Sudbury again. If you can't solve the crime, we hope you will still enjoy the evening and be entertained by the acting and costumes.

During the evening there will be a raffle. A Ploughman's Supper will be provided. Please bring your own drinks and glasses.

Tickets cost £7.50 from Ann Newport on 01787 371518 or Malcolm Snow on 01787 374096.

Please order in good time, and
