

Cook/housekeeper required

Over the past two years Trelowarren Retreat has established a superb reputation for its hospitality. The retreat is situated on the Lizard Peninsula in South West Cornwall, a designated area of outstanding natural beauty with some of the best beaches in the country close by.

We now have a vacancy for a cook/housekeeper ...This position is pivotal to the well running of the retreat and is a key role within the organization. We realize that it will be an extraordinary person who will fill this role

The position offers a wonderful opportunity to cater for a diverse customer base and to creatively develop new signature dishes

The post would be ideally suited to someone who has a passion for food, and appreciates the finer things in life. An in-depth understanding/gifting in 'topnotch' hospitality is essential.
