Thomas Gainsborough School Chaplaincy

Presentation to Archbishop of Canterbury Justin Welby

On Saturday 29th March 2014 the Chaplaincy team, consisting of Ian Copeman, Liz Moulton and Rev. Chris Ramsey together with Assistant Headteacher Carmel Bavington went to the Cathedral at Bury St. Edmunds to share what is happening within the school Chaplaincy.

We were able to share how by partnering together we can provide a valuable service to the whole school community from students and their families to all the staff - teaching and those in background jobs.

We are there to listen and serve whoever has a need regardless of their faith or belief system and to do this Ian works in the school all day Monday with Liz working all day Thursdays. Chris comes in as his parish duties allow. On Thursday after school together we run a club that can get quite boisterous!

Since starting in October 2013 we have been privileged to listen to staff and students as they share some deeply traumatic experience, laughed with those who are rejoicing and being still with those who need that. We have taken part in lessons and assemblies, celebration events and the day to day hurly-burly of senior school life.

People have been sent to us, people have sought us out, we have found people and we endeavour to serve them as Christ would within that community.

It has been, and is, a privilege and a blessing to work in such a place and to be trusted by so many.

Pray for us.

Ian Copeman
