A “Who-Dunnit” Mystery Evening

“The Body in the Pool”

At Friars Hall, School Street, Sudbury

The format of the evening is:

- The actors introduce themselves and portray the events.
- The audience, in teams of about 8 people question each of the characters in turn.
- Interval – Ploughman’s Supper provided.
- Further scenes are acted out and there is another chance to question the characters.
- Each team decides who committed the crime, how, and why.
- The evening ends with a re-enactment of the crime, and a prize for the team who solved the crime.

This occasion is suitable for all ages except very young children. It is open to all, so invite your family, friends and neighbours. It's great fun so come along and invite others to join in as sleuths for the night. If you can't solve the crime, we hope you will still enjoy the evening and be entertained by the acting.
