

Open Bethlehem – The Film

Film director Leila Sansour returns to Bethlehem, her home town, soon to be encircled by a wall.

The face of Bethlehem is changing rapidly. If trends continue the Christian community of Bethlehem may be unsustainable within one generation.

‘Open Bethlehem’ is a story of her homecoming, revealing a city of astonishing beauty and political strife under occupation.

It draws from 700 hours of original footage. It led to the creation of the largest visual archive of Bethlehem in the world. University College London (UCL) plan to turn the collection into a museum. It’s a personal story, and focuses on a campaign to bring peace to the Middle East.

Backers of the film and the campaign include: Amnesty International, Caritas, Holy Land Trust, Greenbelt.

“One of the most remarkable and moving documentaries I have seen...” - Jon Snow (Channel 4 News)
