*Join us together, one to another,
as we surrender to You*

- Sunday All Churches and especially All Saints Sudbury as they face changes in their structure, may there be many members who find new openings for service and new skills within themselves. May they rise to new heights as they bravely try new ways. Bless Simon also as he meets his new prospects and challenges within the villages he serves.
- Monday Schools – Tudor Road CofE Lord our church schools need extra guidance in today's world. Please surround teachers, staff and parents with a sureness based in You and Your Word when dealing with the transgender problems they all face. Bless Tudor Road especially.
- Tuesday Charities - Drug Abuse The orgs dealing with counselling in any form are vital to us. May the approach of their members be not just sympathetic but really valuable and supportive. Give extra wisdom to volunteers and the addicted where the way forward is not clear to see.
- Wednesday Civic – Open Garden take many hours to create and maintain. The formations take imagination as well as hard work. As the saying goes – may many 'Find God' in our personal gardens.
- Thursday CTiS&D: Porch Project Friday pm at St Andrew's Church, Great Cornard with computer games, table tennis, pool and food, music. Thursdays in term time Youth Workers in Thomas G School. During the holidays out and about in streets and parks. Bless all involved!
- Friday Services – Community Gardeners responsible for the upkeep of our roundabout gardens etc make our life brighter and better. Thank God for their skills and hard work maintenance. May they enjoy all they do.
- Saturday Prayer Breakfasts 8-9.30 am on 6th July at Cornard Christian Fellowship
Town Pastors – Frank & Carol will be walking through the long night hours tonight. May they know a resurgence of strength to meet all needs and deep restorative sleep once they are safely home again.

Not by might, nor by power but by My Spirit says the Lord Almighty Zech 4:6

- Sunday All Churches and especially Pentecost Praise 6.30 at All Saints Church – Speaker Victor Jack organised by Churches Together AND Prayer on Market Hill at 9 pm. As part of the national initiative, Thy Kingdom Come, a new prayer event called 'Bow Down' organised by local church ministers. Come to join in global wave of prayer
- Monday Schools – Wells Hall Walk and work through this school Lord, so that each child becomes aware of their strengths fitting them for whatever life is going to bring them. Give the staff a new self-understanding too
- Tuesday Charities - Women's Institute has been the backbone of town and village life in many ways. Help them rise above restrictions that stop them giving their best as in cake baking. Give each lady her own role.
- Wednesday Civic – All politicians! If ever anyone needed to know the mind of God it is them today! Lord we ask forgiveness for the behaviour of some of our politicians and a re-assessment of their calling to serve.
- Thursday CTiS&D: Fairtrade and TWAM are making concentrated efforts to help people help themselves overseas. We rejoice with their successes and thank You for the vision that moves the hearts of those involved. May new ventures have lasting effects on their communities
- Friday Services – Post Offices have long been of immense value to all of us but are now also under threat. As technology changes our lives Lord, help us to remember those still outside of such IT amenities and not to make them feel lesser citizens because they are not IT minded!
- Saturday Prayer Breakfasts 8-9.30 am at Wells Hall Old School for St Andrew's Great Cornard. A continental breakfast, warm fellowship and sincere heartfelt prayers. No obligations – just come!
Town Pastors – Arthur & Mandy need our prayers tonight. They never know quite what to expect but we ask that they be equipped with every good gift to meet every situation. They "Go with God" & our love.

*Spirit breathe on us, fall afresh on us,
as we gather in Your Name*

- Sunday     All Churches and especially Holy Trinity & URC Long Melford May Your Dear Spirit sweep through these two churches and the village to bring the peace, comfort and the power of God Himself on everyone who visits or worships in these two well loved village churches.
- Monday     Schools –Woodhall Primary This world is a dangerous place for our young people. We ask for protection in their discoveries & wisdom in their conclusions. Lord pour out Your Love on these students and staff
- Tuesday     Charities – Family Support led by Louise Bunton at No. 72 North Street. Give Your understanding to her and her staff as they help those in dire need. Be in No. 72 and within everyone working there. May their every effort shout Your Love and bring You Glory Lord !
- Wednesday     Civic – Village Newsletters Another means of volunteers showing concern for others around them. Thank You for their interest. Please use their efforts to draw folk closer together in real friendship and help.
- Thursday     CTiS&D: Eden’s Project How we rejoice with staff, trustees and volunteers working here Lord. May the eyes of the YPs be open to see and know for themselves the loving God who fills those leading their activities. May many know You in their lives for years to come.
- Friday     Services – Couriers with the surge of on-line shopping, these folk are a vital part of our lives. They must know the areas in the dark too. Lord be their light, guiding their pathways, showing respect. Thank You
- Saturday     Prayer Breakfast at Great Waldingfield Church 8-9.30. Join with Revs Caroline & Faith to share food, fellowship and prayer. All welcome – just turn up. Cost only £1! It'll be worth your coming!

Town Pastors – Not sure who is on duty tonight but obviously God's Holy Spirit will walk our streets accompanying whoever it is! What a joy to know that God is interested in folk enjoying their evening fun.

*Bring Your healing touch, do Your work in us,
as we gather in Your Name*

- Sunday All Churches and especially Bures Assington & Lt Cornard May these churches know a growing joy in their worship as well as in the numbers who attend. May each one know Jesus is within their walls.
- Monday Schools – Lavenham Community with an emphasis on mental well-being for children, we pray this school will be quick to identify needs and find exactly the right solutions to provide the greatest help for their young people. May parents, teachers and students know Your Peace
- Tuesday Charities – Sports - Bowls to Boxing Clubs and everything in between. Thank God for the wonder of physical exertion, meeting challenges, team spirit etc. May these volunteer orgs give God all the glory and know how wonderfully and fearfully they have been made!
- Wednesday Civic – Libraries those involved are dedicated enjoyers of literature. May they be able to open up their young readers so as to pass on their joy in the written word. Thank God again for all the volunteers involved
- Thursday CTiS&D: Clerics dealing in bereaved counselling. This area of their work must be so very difficult and demanding. Lord give our clerics just the right words and the right approach. May they be the means of Your comforting presence being able to reach into the hearts in despair
- Friday Services – Plumbers these folk who dig our drains and get under our sinks are a Godsend! With clean, running water and efficient drainage. we are most blessed. Thank God for these folk and their skills.
- Saturday Prayer Breakfasts 8-9.30 am on 29th at Holy Trinity Long Melford. Blessings on all as Jane and her helpers give you a warm welcome and lead you into comfortable, real prayer fellowship.

Town Pastors – Frank & Jannice carrying the torch into the darkness on our behalf tonight. Lord be the light to their path and reach into the hearts and lives of those they meet up with. Bless all out tonight.
