(blessed) is the man who hears the word and understands it. v 23

- Sunday All Churches and especially St John's as John and Ann have moved on to their new home near their family after 10 years in Sudbury. They will be greatly missed. We thank God for every remembrance of them & pray for hold St John's as they face the future.
Town Pastors. Frank & Jannice are awake as we all sleep and walking the streets tonight. Please keep them safe and able to show God's love to those out celebrating, possibly needing help.
- Monday Schools – Hopefully many children will visit Foxearth Meadows with their parents after discovering much through their school trips here. May Mark and his team rejoice as they watch the children's awe and interest in the wildlife. Praises rise to You Lord, our Awesome Creator
- Tuesday Charities - Quay Theatre for an evening 'getting away from it all' the Quay can be the tops. Bless everyone there Lord, from those doing the meanest of jobs to the 'stars' of the shows. May every word bring thoughtful enjoyment and every laugh, healing. You are God of all our emotions – laughing and crying with us. Share these evenings too.
- Wednesday Civic – New plans must be in place as they try to save money or allocate it more carefully. We do appreciate the strains they are under with the needs of young and old in our society. Give them new heart as they work out how best to achieve their targets and meet our needs
- Thursday CTiS&D: Approaching a new season we ask for an anointing on all who serve us through this org. May the Chair, Secretaries, Enabling Group and every volunteer know the anticipation of more lives being reached with Your Love as they serve in their own areas. Bless all.
- Friday Services – No holidays! There are those who cannot, even never, go away for a holiday. Help us to be aware of these folk and find ways of 'giving them a break'!
- Saturday No Prayer Breakfasts resume next Saturday at 8 – 9.30am. Town Pastors. Andy and Jenny/Norma out tonight. Please keep safe.

The knowledge of the secrets of the kingdom has been given to you...Matt 13:11

- Sunday All Churches and especially the Catholic Church on The Croft. Be so close to Father Peter Brett that he knows he lives totally in tune with You Dear Spirit. Bless all our friends as they worship and serve You in this lovely church. May Your praises ring in their ears and their hearts
- Monday Schools – Holidays have started. Surround our local youngsters Lord with Your protective love and help them to quickly find interest and excitement in ordinary daily things whilst they are without the discipline and routine of school. Help students and teachers to unwind gently!
- Tuesday Charities - Ramblers so many groups walk our lovely meadows, woods and fields. Lord lift up their eyes, not just to the tree tops but to heaven itself and help them glory in all Your Great Creative Love.
- Wednesday Civic – Sudbury Carnival is on 11th August. There must be much to do involving our Council and staff. Please be in their thinking and their planning so that all will be thoroughly enjoyable & totally safe, please!
- Thursday CTiS&D: UCB's Bob Gass is now taking his rest with the Lord. How many have been touched, supported, encouraged, strengthened by the writers of daily notes! Thank God for using folk like Bob and his wife Debbie to reach into needy hearts & troubled minds. Thank You!
- Friday Services – Travel Agents As we thank You for rest and recuperation we remember many may be involved in making sure our holidays run to plan helping us to reap the best from our times away. Be with them.
- Saturday No Prayer Breakfasts – but as we pull the blankets back over us, let us remember one another, and thank God for our friendship together and the gift of sharing our hopes, dreams and confidences together.
Town Pastors –With Nigel & Carol on our streets, we ask for great wisdom and strength for every meeting. May their words carry Your Love and their helpfulness bring others closer to recognizing You are alive and well and walking the streets of Sudbury with our TPs.

Blessed are your eyes because they see (Me)...v 17

- Sunday All Churches and especially Cornard Christian Fellowship. With links to various projects locally and overseas, this lively church brings loving hope to many And their music lifts the praises of this people. Bless them Lord from work to worship Be in everything they plan & do.
- Monday Schools – Families may struggle this month when they are out of their ordinary routine. Please give parents – endless patience; children – real consideration. Bind our families together Lord as only You can rather than allow stresses of modern life to separate. Bind them Lord
- Tuesday Charities – Sudbury Society Aim to ‘stimulate local interest and pride in our attractive and historic market town’ They have a heart for Sudbury, so may they also have eyes to see deeper and minds set on real improvements
- Wednesday Civic – Travellers parking in our towns and villages bring many problems to local councils. May they be more considerate of what they are actually doing to any area they visit. May our Council have tact, wisdom & tolerance in keeping the peace! Help us not to discriminate
- Thursday CTiS&D: Garden events will abound in August. May we ‘find God in our gardens’ and know His Hand of loving creation is without hindrance May we see Him in our oaks and a fly’s wing as well as the heavens so our praises can rise to new heights & deepen our own understanding
- Friday Services – Air travel etc May those who would ‘strike’ think twice. May those serving in airports have exactly the right attitude. May our young revellers think twice before boarding planes whilst inebriated. Keep all staff & passengers safe & able to enjoy their time in the air.
- Saturday Prayer Breakfasts Individually may we hold all who ‘serve’ us through the year to keep our faith strong and alive. From our clergy to cleaners
Town Pastors – we pray for those ‘policing’ our streets tonight Lord civil and ‘civvy’. May their approach be respectful and warm; may they be able to share their sobriety and strength to best effect again without judgment. May they be as You to each one they meet tonight.

Blessed... are your ears because they hear (Me)... v 17

- Sunday All Churches and especially Eden’s Project on their 20th Anniversary Celebration. Open Day at 45 Gainsborough St from 12.30 to 4 pm. Meet the YPs, have a tour and put pictures around your prayers for this valuable youth work. May there be blessings all round.
- Monday Schools – Fun & freedom brings new discoveries & achievements. May our children learn great lessons through their fun and games. Be in their daring ideas and help them to understand themselves better as they learn life’s lessons through relaxation. Keep them mindful Lord
- Tuesday Charities – Gainsborough House One of Sudbury’s claims to fame! May those who visit enjoy what they ‘see’ here. May GH’s staff know how to best pass on their knowledge of the old masters. May this House be another place of thanking God for skills & artistry. Bless all
- Wednesday Civic – Transparency a word bandied about frequently but difficult to live by. Help our Councillors and staff to be open and above board in all their service to us. May they serve others as they would be served
- Thursday CTiS&D: Openair events from village greens and church gardens will draw folk together with the aim of enjoying summer evenings. May all involved know the joy of jobs well done and being appreciated.
- Friday Services – Camp sites from trailers – caravans – tents in various beauty spots allow us to stretch and breathe deeply God’s good air. Give these campers a deep restful enjoyment and memories that last.
- Saturday Prayer Breakfasts We pray for those who plan, prepare and diarise our various projects like Breks, especially thinking of David and Malcolm and thank God for them and their expertise and willingness Town Pastors – They are walking the streets tomorrow night. So Lord we’re thinking of all drivers – taxi, ambulances, police, workers and even parents and friends who ‘pick up’ the happy revellers this bank holiday weekend, Please keep all in control, safe and secure. Please Lord may there be no accidents.
