How great is the love the Father has lavished on us... 1 John 3:1

- Sunday All Churches and especially our Quaker Friends. As they believe in 'faith in action', we ask that every time they reach out to the community they might be blessed with assurance that not only are they needed but creatively blessing those they serve so lovingly. Thank You Lord!
- Monday Schools – Tudor Road CofE Again we ask that the dedication and commitment of the staff might bear fruit in the lives they touch daily. May each child leave the building with an awareness of Your Presence with them, especially if their home life is unaware of Your Great Love
- Tuesday Charities – Abuse orgs have been hard pressed during our enforced lockdown. Those who only know how to hit out at their nearest loved ones have suffered too. Dear Healer, move between the warring families, especially hold the children close, soothing their wounds. May every org. know how best to mend, strengthen and re-vitalise everyone
- Wednesday Civic – Tim Passmore has been re-elected as Police Commissioner & has new plans in mind to help Pandemic recovery. Give him a clear mind and balanced outlook that allows him to pass his ideas on to others and put them into operation. Bless every effort as "the pattern of crime is changing", on-line crime coming to fore. Be his Mentor.
- Thursday CTiS&D: Kettle & Fish will be open for any visitors there might be to Sudbury. We ask a special blessing on them. You have touched so many here in the past, may their visit be memorable & often repeated.
- Friday Services – NHS We can't pray too hard or too often for every aspect of NHS. May every meeting between medic & patient bring respect & true concern to both. Be in our hospital management under such scrutiny nowadays. May there be strong leadership on every front.
- Saturday Prayer Breakfast Prayer Breakfast 9-10 am to join the Zoom meeting call Ruth Ridge ruthridge@gmail.com you will be warmly welcomed
Town Pastors – still praying. No news of their return to duty yet but we ask for the way to be made clear and open so they can do just that

Praise to the Holiest in the height...

- Sunday All Churches and especially St Mary's Glemsford one of five churches in Glem valley, they are beginning to open up for worship together and Zoom meet during the week. Bless each as they gather. May their worship be heartfelt and their praying deep and powerful. Foxearth Meadows are holding Open Air Service at 3 pm today!
- Monday Schools – St Gregory's CEVC However restricted our faith schools might feel, we ask that the positive presence of believing teachers might touch the life of every child with reality. May Your Spirit reach deep into childish understanding and reap great rewards in later life.
- Tuesday Charities – Bridge Project have new horizons as they relocate and join forces with AFC Sudbury. Working with adults with learning difficulties through a community cafe in St Peter's and a retail outlet in Gainsborough Street they will have a great impact on our town.
- Wednesday Civic – Mayoress Sue Ayres is returned to office. Be close to her Lord. Give her strength & wisdom beyond her experience so that she can meet every challenge, rise to each new opportunity and lead her Council into fresh fields. Bless the commitment of each member too
- Thursday CTiS&D: Kettle & Fish will be open again today! Thank God for that however limited everyone feels. May each visitor have entered with a searching heart and every assistant call for an extra infilling of Your Spirit so that all needs will be met & know You are obviously present
- Friday Services – Leisure orgs opened up again. We ask Lord for each member when pushing themselves hard be considerate to others not so disciplined. May there be a real joy in sharing their exertions so they gain even more than just stimulated muscles. Bless their efforts!
- Saturday Prayer Breakfast 9-10 am to join the Zoom meeting call Ruth Ridge ruthridge@gmail.com you will be warmly welcomed
Town Pastors – still praying. No news of their return to duty yet but we ask for the way to be made clear and open so they can do just that

O loving wisdom of our God!

- Sunday    All Churches and especially Catholic Sudbury & Hadleigh, are both open for Mass. May Your Holy Spirit touch many lives at a level unknown before this year. May Your Words be heard and Your Love felt by each worshipper, clergy, assistant. Bless each one richly Lord.
- Monday    Schools – St Joseph’s RC Primary We ask that each child may gain a real knowledge that surpasses the general acceptance of their faith. May each child, teacher, staff meet personally with Jesus & know Him as their Very Best Friend in whatever life throws at them
- Tuesday    Charities – Animal Welfare are vital assistance to pet owners. As we follow the TV vets we ask that each charity finds new support, people and finance. Dear Healer may their valuable work especially reach those vulnerable folk who so rely on the companionship of their pets.
- Wednesday    Civic – Belle Vue sold – at last. But this will not please everyone! May those planning new homes for elderly be gifted with open minds so their ideas are acceptable and feasible. Bless our town centre Lord it is a shadow of what it has been. May shops & parking come to life.
- Thursday    CTiS&D: Future plans are unknown at the moment but we ask that every idea and suggestion of members might be met with excitement & willingness to be involved. May CTS ‘come alive’ again soon & take up their role of bridge-building between churches & drawing-in those who reach out to know more of our Wonderful God. Be glorified we pray!
- Friday    Services – Therapists are a blessing on many fronts so we ask for wise words, a strong loving touch, all that is required to meet the needs they are faced with. May their patients relax and recover under their skill. Keep them true to their calling Lord & bless all their efforts please
- Saturday    Prayer Breakfast 9-10 am to join the Zoom meeting call Ruth Ridge ruthridge@gmail.com you will be warmly welcomed
Town Pastors – still praying. No news of their return to duty yet but we ask for the way to be made clear and open so they can do just that

O wisest love!      O generous love!

- Sunday    All Churches and especially Cornard Christian Fellowship have placed bunting around their Hall. May the joy of the Lord touch all who notice it and may it draw many to find that our God is available to all who reach out. Bless their ministry every way we ask In Jesus’ Name
- Monday    Hopefully Lockdown fully lifted! May other areas soon be safe too
Schools – Thomas Gainsborough Academy This school has a good name locally but can only be as good as its staff & students. We ask for all an awareness that the knowledge they seek & share is only a path to discovering the wonder of life dedicated to be the best possible
- Tuesday    Charities – Cancer called on when folk are in dire straits needs to be self-effacing, concentrating on those needing their help of whatever nature. May they share Your heart’s concern and be able to reach deep into the lives of those needing them. Bless their gifts and giving.
- Wednesday    Civic – Market Hill looks so forlorn with its empty shops and the only life seeming to be food & drink! No wonder we are over-weight! Lord give our Council the ideas, means and ‘push’ to re-vamp our town centre. May it really revive with St Peter’s obviously leading the way.
- Thursday    CTiS&D: Kettle & Fish in session again today. May the history of prayer that has been St Peter’s, anoint all again as folk share their joys and struggles. May Your Presence be felt at every table, meeting every need; strengthening weakness, blessing visitor & all staff alike.
- Friday    Services – Police with the extra role of vaccination control etc, must be pushed to their limit. Please take hold of their finances. Be in all their training. Keep the PC rules & all targets realistic so they can do their job well & thoroughly as in the past. Keep us supporting them.
- Saturday    Prayer Breakfast 9-10 am to join the Zoom meeting call Ruth Ridge ruthridge@gmail.com you will be warmly welcomed
Town Pastors – still praying. No news of their return to duty yet but we ask for the way to be made clear and open so they can do just that
